For Ages 9 to 12

Whichwood, by Tahereh Mafi (Dutton Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "I adored this touching, magic-filled Persian fantasy. At times dark and disturbing, it retains the sense of whimsy and tenderness that I found so charming in Furthermore. In her job as a mordeshoor, Laylee is responsible for preparing the dead to cross over into the afterlife, a burden bigger than anyone her age should bear alone. She is a lonely but caring girl and in desperate need of some help and friendship when two strange visitors arrive in Whichwood, changing her life more than she could have imagined." —Kelly O'Sullivan, R.J. Julia Booksellers, Madison, CT

For Teen Readers

As You Wish, by Chelsea Sedoti (Sourcebooks Fire, $17.99) "Madison may look like an ordinary town, but it's anything but ordinary, because every Madison-born resident gets to go to the cave and make a wish on their 18th birthday—and that wish will come true. Eldon has seen how requests for money, beauty, and athletic prowess, have rarely brought true happiness. Now he has to decide what to ask for on his own wishing day, knowing that what he wants more than anything—for his sister to recover from the accident that left her dying in a hospital—is against the rules. Chelsea Sedoti's layered story hooks readers from the first page." —Carla Ketner, Chapters Books & Gifts, Seward, NE
